SUBJECT : FY 2017 Staff Development and Training Department Changes in Price

Effective October 3, 2016, Staff Development and Training Department will be increasing our cost of services in all our training curriculum as well as our facility rental usage. Our department team has come together to make an important decision as today's economy has increased slightly which reflects the increase of our operational costs. Our organization had offered our services at an extremely low cost that accommodated more than local costs of facility rental and competitive training businesses. Please be informed that with the changes we have made our Department will not compromise on quality, your business is very important to our department.

In FY 2017 Staff Development and Training Department's new prices will be reflected as follows:

Cost of Service for Classes
